Champ Clark on His Way to Esopus With Notification Speech.

SAYS DEMOCRATS WILL WIN

Race Issue Strong in West Virginia and Massachusetts. Duke Replies to Bartholdt.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., August 8.— Champ Clark, of Missouri, member of Congress, author, orator and lecturer, was in Washington a short time yeswhich place he left last night. He is chairman of the committee to notify presidency, and he carried in his satchel the speech which he will make upon several States of the West since the St.
Louis Convention adjourned, and has had exceptionally fine opportunities for gauging public sentiment.

"Parker and Davis will be elected," he said, his face beaming with pleasure. "I have traveled extensively in the he suld, his face beaming with pleasure. "I have traveled extensively in the course of the past month, lecturing in various States. I have learned enough to convince me that Roosevelt will be beaten. The Democrats will carry New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Delaware. They will also carry Maryland, Nest Virginia, and Kentucky. There will be twelve more votes needed, assuming that the solid South will be for Parker, of which there is not the shadow of a doubt. Indiana and the silver States of the West will furnish more than enough votes to elect our candidates. I could scarcely be more confident."

Sure of West Virginia.

Mr. Clark is very confident that West Virginia will be carried by the Democrats. The fact that one candidate for a circuit judgeship, nominated by the Republicans, has refused to accept the nomination tecause he says he intends voting the Democratic ticket this year, and that one of the electors named by the Republican State Convention has declined to allow his name to go on the Roosevelt and Pairbanks ticket, because, he says, he will vote for Parker and Davis, are regarded by Mr. Clark as clearly indicative of the trend of sentiment in the State.

The public refusal of the two men

State.

The public refusal of the two men named to allow their names to appear on the West Virginia Republican ticket lass attracted about as much attention as any development of the campaign in any State. Democrats are hopeful that it is but a sample of the change of heart which many Republicans have undersome in the course of a two years of dergone in the course of a two years of Roosevellism. Senator N. B. Scott, whose successor in the United States Senate will be chosen by the Legislature, which will be elected in West Virginia this fall, was here Saturday on his way to New York. Senator, Elkins was here also. Both these gentlemen professed confidence as to the outcome in the Mountain State. Senator Scott is not so consident as his words would indicate, or as he would have "the boys" believe He said to a gentleman in this city two months ago or more, that the Republi-said to a gentleman in this city two menths ago or more, that the Republicans would lose the governorship in West Virginia this year, and that they would do well if they elected a Republican Legislature.

There is nearly every reason to believe that the Democrats will carry everything in West Virginia this fall. It is the opinion of several Democrats and Lepublicans from that State with whom I have talked in the past few days, that Lepublicans from that State with whom I have talked in the past fow days, that had the Democratic Convention at Parkersburg last week adopted a "white supremary" plank which was offered, the loss of the State to the Republicans would have been assured. The negro has become a burning issue in West Virginia of late years. ginla of late years.

The same is true of Massachusetts.

Mr. F. W. Glies, of Boston who is at the New Willard to-day, said that pub-lic sentiment as regards the negro is undoubtedly undergoing a great change in the Bay State.

"My father was one of the most ardent abulitionists who ever breathed," said Mr. Glies. "He was an active agent of the 'underground railway,' and helped of the 'underground railway,' and helped meny slaves of Virginia and Kentucky to escape to the North and liberty. As a consequence, I inherited a very kindly feeling towards the race, but since I hav, come' in contact with many individual representatives of the black race, my feelings have undergone a radical change. I have employed them as done has ever been satisfactory. They never show any appreciation of kind and fair treatment. Indeed, the better the treatment accorded them, the less they are disposed to render faithful service. I have never had a negro in my employ for any extended period who proved himself trustworthy.

"My experience is that of many others in the North," continued Mr, Giles, "and it is no uncommon thing to hear Northern people say now that this talk of elevating the black race by means of educating it is hopeless; that the negro is an inferior being, and that it is a waste of time and money to try to teach him to Duke's Reply to Bartholdt.

The murder Friday night of a wealthy and widely known gentleman of Hartford, Conii., by a negro valet whom he had discharged, followed by an attempt to lynch the murderer, will have the effect of forcing still more forcibly upon the people of the North a realization of the fact that the negro problem is not sectional as seems to have been in the platform.

Judge R. T. W. Duke, of Charlottes-ville, has wrighen an open letter to a gentleman of Texas, in which he pro-nounces as absurd to the uniost degree the statement made in the House of nounces as absurd to the utmost degree the statement made in the House of Representative Bartholdt, of Missouri, that Thomas Jefferson, upon one occasion, had as his guests at a dinner at Monticelle Chief Justice Marshall, William Wirt and a negro. The gist of the letter from Judge Duke is that the story is impossible, because Mr. Jefferson and Chief Justice Marshall were not on speaking terms for a quarter of a century prior to the former's death. Mr. Bartholdt said the dinner was given after Mr. Jefferson had been President of the United States. Of course, the story was ridiculous, and did not receive credence from any man of intelligence who lives in the South. or is in the least degree familiar with conditions in that section. Judge Duke asserts that Mr. Jefferson was in favor of the gradual emancipation of the sinvena fact, I believe, pretty generally known. Representative Swanson returned here Saturday night from Strasburg, where he was the oratior of the day at a Confederate reunion Saturday. He went on to New York, and yesterday he was one of the callers upon Judge Parker at Esopus.

Cut Of Ice Supply.
(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, August 8.—The union teamthe principal weapon the labor leaders propose to use to saued to-day to drivers of ice wagons to than two hundred retail dealers, who have been buying meat from the so-called have been buying meat from the so-called trust packers and haulirg it away with their own wagons, has been compiled, and, according to the claims of the strike leaders, the ice supply will be cut off from overy one of these places to-morrow morning. Arrangements have been made to have pickets stationed at all the retail markets which have been placed under the ban of the unions to see that the boyoott is enforced to the limit. The International Brotherhood of Teamsters Unions at Cincinnati to-day gave the necessary endorsement of the proposed boycott.

Packers Satisfied. All the packing plants began operations here to-day with slightly increased forces of workmen nearly two hundred additional employes having been secured over Sunday. Nearly all the men who left the yards Saturday night to spend Sunday at their homes returned to work this morning.

The live stock receipts, consisting of 19,000 cattle, 26,000 hogs and 20,000 sheep, were nearly all brought up by the packers to-day. This fact, the packers claim, is positive evidence that they now have the situation well in hand.

NORFOLK, VA. Aug. 8.—On board the steamship Nantucket, of the Merchants' and Miners' line, which arrived to-day from Boston, was Edward A. Wentworth, of the schooner Ella Francis, which was sunk in collision with the Nantucket last Saturday night. Mate Wentworth was the only man on the schooner saved, the others having been drowned. The collision took place in a dense for of Norsuch Light, Cape Cod. The schopner at the time of collision was bound from Elizatorth. N. J., to Rockland, Me., with a carso of 240 tons of coal.

When the vessels came together the fog horns were blowing on each. The Nantucket struck the schooner with such tock the schooner with such to the school of the scho the vessel sank immediately.

Those who were lost were Captain Thoridyke, of Rockland, Me., and William Harvey, Mike Seaton and Herbert Gray, sailors, all of Rockport, Me. Those who were drowned were in one of the schooner's boats, which was drawn under by the vortex made by the propeller. The mate, however, remained aboard the schooner, and was in imminent danger of drowning when the boat from the steamship reached him just in time.

Captain Thorndyke leaves a wife and child. It is understood that the others lost were unmarried.

The New Bijou Theatre.

The Board of Fire Commissioners held a three hours' session last night to consider a report made by the city engineer upon the new Bijou Theatre building, now in course of efection.

Colonel Cutshaw thought that certain parts of the building were strong enough, especially the gallery and the wall. He stated that he had calculated the proper strength on a basis of one hundred and fifty pounds per square foot for floors. Mr. Claftin, of New York, the architect who designed the building, stated that ninety pounds per square foot was the standard for flooring adopted in that city.

Colored Fashion Plates, if well executed, mean more to the woman who is thinking about gowns than anything else she canifind in her favorite magazine.

The Delineator used to contain them. For nearly a year past they have been omitted—simply because we couldn't make them good enough to match the rest of the magazine; not that they weren't better than the others, published in this country.

Now that we are in our new building with our new presses we are publishing colored plates that are colored plates, nearly equal to the French—not quite—but we use huge French presses on the way, and soons we will have their product to give you, which will be as much better than ours of this month, as ours are better than the others printed in America.

We are not apologizing for what we offer you this month—the quality is too good to need it. We are simply promising even better, pretty soon.

The month's fashions are full of promise of the Fall facinian on.

Everything that the exclusive woman wants, as well as the dependable modes that avoid the extremes. Much, too, for the children and their older sisters.

No series of beauty articles has every favor as Dr. Grace Peckham Murray's "Fountain of Youth," which this month deals with simple, rational exercise for the symmetry of the body—exercises which any woman may practise with safety, and with certainty of satisfactory results.

In the series of "Famous Pioneer Women," this month tells of Rebecca Williams, whose experiences on the frontier in the early days are almost without a parallel for bravery and hairbreadth escapes.

Clever stories, well illustrated, maintain The Delineator's standard for high-class fiction. "A Little Knight of the Grail," by Albert Bigelow Paine, is a bit of sentiment and patho in quite the best vein of this popular writer. "The Metamorphosis of Tan Shin" is a charming love tale woven around a small Japanese idol. Wolf von Schierbrand, the famous traveller and suthority on matters in the East, contributes and ricle, both interesting and timely, on "T of Russia."

The Departments, always among The Delineator's strongest features, are unusually full of usefulness this month: "The Girl and Her Interests" containing Another Talk About Pictures by Princilla Wakefield; "The Observances of Society" in this issue treats of Etiquette for Men.
